FAQs for Members of the Press

Q. Who can apply for Press Accreditation to cover 19th AAWIC Film Festival?

A. People who either work or freelance for bona fide media outlets can apply. This includes photographers, videographers, editors and bloggers. You must submit examples of your press work (not just photos on your Flickr, Dropbox or Instagram account, for example). Preference is given to members of the press who regularly cover similar events and can show tearsheets of their work. Portrait, wedding and portfolio photographers are not considered to be press unless they have been assigned to shoot for a bona fide media outlet. We especially look for press that have over 5,000 followers on social media.

Q. Is there an application fee?

A. No.

Q. What are the dates and show times for the next event?

A. Please visit the Festival Itinerary.

Q. If I submit an application, will I be on the press list?

A. All applications are reviewed and if approved, we will email you a press pass. The application is NOT a press pass.

Q. Are press passes valid for all shows and parties?

A. Press passes are valid for access to cover all events at the Festival with the exception of the VIP Awards Gala Honoring the Queen. Press that are invited to attend the VIP Awards Gala, will only be permitted to cover the event. To participate in dinner..tickets are available on-line.

Q. How many people can be accredited from each press organization?

A. Maximum 2. Each person must submit an application.

Q. Do you cover travel expenses for members of the press?

2006 Westchester Avenue, Parkchester, NY 10462 Tel. 347-310-3445 www.aawic.org

A. No.

Q. Can I attend if my media credentials are not active? A. Non-press are welcome to purchase tickets at www.aawic.org
